Failure to comply with any of these requirements may result in a delay in payment of the invoices for which LLNS will not be responsible for paying any late fees or interest.
B. The Seller acknowledges under penalty of law that when the Seller submits an invoice to LLNS for payment that the Seller expects that the invoice will be paid by LLNS, and that LLNS will be reimbursed by the Federal Government through the U.S. Department of Energy. Therefore, based on personal knowledge and good faith belief, the Seller certifies that invoices will be truthful and accurate, and that the costs and charges set forth in the invoices submitted to LLNS will be necessary for such matters contemplated pursuant to this Purchase Order.
C. LLNS will make payment for Ordered Items delivered to the specified delivery destination, and for services completed and accepted by LLNS. Unless otherwise provided in the Purchase Order, the terms of payment are 30 business days after receipt of the Seller's properly submitted invoice. The Seller shall not request a representative of LLNS to provide any additional end-use statements or certifications relative to the goods procured under this Purchase Order.
C. The Seller shall ensure that the provisions of this clause apply to its subcontractors.

The Seller shall furnish, and shall require lower-tier subcontractors to furnish, all reasonable facilities and assistance, including access to Seller or lower-tier subcontractor inspection or testing records, to LLNS for purposes of conducting such preliminary inspection. Any such preliminary inspection does not waive LLNS right to inspect and accept or reject any Ordered Items upon delivery.
B. LLNS reserves the right to inspect the Ordered Items at any time after delivery, including after completion of performance. LLNS is not obligated to inspect the Ordered Items, and neither the inspection nor the lack of inspection by LLNS will relieve the Seller of its responsibility for providing the Ordered Items in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Purchase Order. The inspection or use of or payment for an Ordered Item under the Purchase Order, either wholly or in part, may not be construed as an acceptance. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Purchase Order, LLNS’s inspection of Ordered Items shall not constitute a waiver of any of its rights for latent defects.
C. If any Ordered Item or any part thereof is not in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Purchase Order, LLNS shall notify the Seller that the Ordered Item is rejected. Thereupon, the Seller shall, at its own expense, take the necessary corrective action. If any such change causes an increase or decrease in the cost of, or the time required for, performance of any part of this Purchase Order, the LLNS Contract Analyst shall make an equitable adjustment in the Purchase Order price, the delivery schedule, or both, by a written modification to the Purchase Order. The Seller must submit any claim for an equitable adjustment within 30 calendar days from receipt of a directed change, or by such other time as the LLNS Contract Analyst may permit. The Seller shall promptly replace such items at its expense with conforming items.
C. LLNS will impound any suspect/counterfeit items furnished or used under this Purchase Order and may provide such items to the appropriate authorities for investigation. LLNS reserves the right to withhold payment for the suspect/counterfeit items pending the results of any such investigation.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Seller’s obligations with respect to Protected Information shall continue in full force and effect and survive the cancellation, expiration, or earlier termination of this Purchase Order for as long as the information in question is protected.

The Seller shall refrain from paying any such tax, fee, or charge, unless otherwise authorized by LLNS, and to take such steps as may be required by LLNS to cause such tax, fee, or charge to be paid under protest. The Seller shall have reason to believe or LLNS has advised the Seller that such tax, fee, or charge is or may be inapplicable or invalid. The Seller shall proceed diligently with performance of this Purchase Order, pending final resolution of any dispute concerning the tax, fee, or charge. CLAUSE 18- ASSIGNMENTS

A. LLNS may assign this Purchase Order to the Government or its designee(s).

B. Except as to assignment of payment due hereunder, the Seller has no right, power or authority to sell, mortgage, transfer or assign this Purchase Order, any portion hereof, any interest herein or any claim hereunder, nor allow or permit any other party or parties to have any interest in or use any part of the rights or obligations granted hereunder for any purpose whatsoever without the prior written consent of LLNS.

CLAUSE 19- DISPUTES

A. All disputes arising under or otherwise relating to this Purchase Order shall be resolved under this clause; however, nothing in this clause is intended to prohibit empowered representatives of either party from informally discussing with the other any matters arising from the performance of this Purchase Order. Notwithstanding any provision of this Purchase Order, the Seller shall proceed diligently with performance of this Purchase Order, pending final resolution of any dispute hereunder.

B. To help resolve disputes in the most efficient and cost-effective process possible, all disputes arising under or otherwise relating to this Purchase Order must proceed through the following stages of dispute resolution:

1. Stage 1: If either party believes that the other is or will not be able to perform as required under this Purchase Order, it may raise such concern with the other party at any time. If the dispute is not resolved after thirty (30) calendar days of first being raised, then either party may escalate the matter to Stage 2.

2. Stage 2: Under Stage 2, the matter is elevated to the respective management of both parties for resolution. LLNS will elevate the matter to its Department Head for Supply Chain Management and the other party will elevate the matter to its equivalent or higher. Management of both parties will have thirty (30) calendar days to resolve the matter or to mutually agree upon a plan to resolve the matter. If the parties’ respective managements cannot agree on a resolution of the matter, either party may further elevate the matter to Stage 3.

3. Stage 3: Under Stage 3, the parties agree to mediate the dispute as a pre-condition to either party initiating litigation. Either party may initiate mediation by delivering written notice to the other party. Both parties shall attend and participate in the mediation in good faith. Unless both parties agree otherwise, the mediation shall be conducted by a JAMS mediator in the San Francisco Bay area and shall be conducted in accordance with the JAMS mediation procedures then in effect. The costs of the mediation shall be shared equally by the parties.

4. Stage 4: In the event that a dispute is not resolved through the mediation conducted pursuant to Stage 3, then either party may provide written notice that the mediation is terminated and it intends to pursue litigation pursuant to the GOVERNING LAW AND VENUE clause of these GENERAL PROVISIONS. Neither party can initiate litigation until fifteen (15) calendar days have passed after delivery of the notice of the termination of the mediation.

CLAUSE 20- EXCUSABLE DELAYS

The Seller will be liable for default unless non-performance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Seller and without its fault or negligence, such as acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, flood, epidemics quarantine, restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Seller shall notify LLNS in writing as soon as reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch, and shall promptly give LLNS written notice of the cessation of such occurrence. Failure of the Seller to provide such written notice shall constitute a waiver of the Seller subsequently being able to raise an excusable delay as an excuse for failure to perform as otherwise provided in the Purchase Order.

CLAUSE 21- TERMINATION

A. Notwithstanding any other term of this Purchase Order to the contrary, LLNS reserves the right to terminate this Purchase Order, or any part hereof, at its sole convenience. In the event of such termination for convenience, as directed in any such written notice, the Seller shall immediately stop all work hereunder and shall immediately cause any and all of its lower-tier suppliers and subcontractors to cease work. LLNS will pay the Seller, subject to the terms and conditions of the Purchase Order, a percentage of the Purchase Order price reflecting the percentage of work performed prior to the notice of termination, plus any reasonable charges resulting from the termination which the Seller can substantiate to the satisfaction of LLNS, using the Seller's standard record keeping system; provided, however, that the total thereof may not exceed the Purchase Order price. LLNS is not responsible for paying the Seller for any work performed or costs incurred which reasonably could have been avoided. Any disagreement by Seller with the amount of LLNS’s payment shall be treated as a dispute and resolved using the escalation process defined in the DISPUTES clause.

B. Notwithstanding any other term of this Purchase Order to the contrary, either party may terminate this Purchase Order for cause upon the other party’s material breach. If the material breach can reasonably be cured, the non-breaching party shall provide written notice to the breaching party of its material breach and the efforts that the breaching party must take to cure the material breach. The breaching party shall have thirty (30) days to cure the material breach to the reasonable satisfaction of the non-breaching party. If, after thirty (30) days, the non-breaching party is not reasonably satisfied that the breaching party has effectively cured its material breach, then the non-breaching party may terminate this Agreement for default by providing written notice to the breaching-party that the Agreement is terminated, effective upon delivery of the notice. If the material breach cannot be reasonably cured, then the non-breaching party may terminate the Agreement for default by providing written notice that the Agreement is terminated, effective upon delivery of the notice. Any disagreements arising under this Clause shall be treated as a dispute and resolved under the process defined in the DISPUTES clause.

CLAUSE 22- NON-WAIVER OF DEFAULT

Any failure by either party to strictly enforce performance of any of the terms or conditions of this Purchase Order does not constitute a waiver of such terms or conditions and does not affect or impair such terms or conditions in any way nor the right of either party to avail itself of such remedies for any breach or breaches of such terms or conditions.
